Admiral Integration, Inc.

Structured Cabling

Structured cabling infrastructure is the backbone of a cabling systems to allow organization's and their facilities to communicate data within their business processes. This allows for multiple information technology systems to transmit information between telecommunications closets, workstations, and numerous buildings.

Admiral Integration specializes in all phases of network cabling, from strategy and design to implementation, maintenance, and support. Contact us today to discuss your network and cabling needs for office or manufacturing.

Portfolio of Offerings

- ◦ Structured Network Cabling Solutions
  Design and installation of structures cabling systems (CAT5E, CAT6, and fiber optic), with complete certification and labeling of lines, gives you unparalleled connectivity.

- ◦ Server Room and Rack Clean-Up
  Organized cabling frees up floor space, lowers utility costs, and makes network troubleshooting easier.

- ◦ Secure IP Video Camera Systems
  Design and installation of IP video camera systems enables digitized video streams to be transmitted over secure networks and managed remotely.

- ◦ Access Controls
  Electronically monitor and control access through doors, gates, elevators, and many other entry points.

- ◦ Wireless Assessment and Deployment
  Expert design and installation of secured wireless networks gives you complete wireless coverage for your business needs.